“ Bennie, it's been 5 yrs ago today that you left us and I still miss you just as much as the day you left. I have dreams of you from time to time but don't always remember them in detail. Our world has become more troublesome since you left, hatred and sadness everywhere. I'm sure you're in a much better place. Can't wait to see your smiling face again old friend. Love, Bedo

“ Our memories of Lynn are happy ones, funny ones, kind ones snapshots of generosity, wit and especially humor. I know that is a sad contrast to what all of you are going through, and our hearts goes out to you. We hope all your favorite memories will help to soften these past dark days and bring you smiles along with the tears.

“ I am so very sorry to hear about Lynn's passing. Her time here on earth with her family was much too short. So many more memories should have been made. Heaven gained another wonderful angel much too soon. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this time of sorrow.

“ I'm sure that Lynn's smile has brightened the heavens this day. She has been such a good friend, and I will miss her dearly. But being the free-spirit that she has always been, I rejoice in her glorious freedom. My heart goes out to Jimmie, Heather, Rowan, and Scott and my prayers are with you in your grief.

“ Lynn will always be known to me (Helen) as my little mushuganah! She was a joy to be around and a great friend to us, along with Jimmy. We have memories of cruises, visits and family life, along with tons of laughter. We will always remember her sweet smile and she will be in our hearts everyday! Jim and family: Cherish the outpouring of love from everyone for she was one special lady! God Bless you all.

“ Dear Cuz, I just cannot believe you left us already!!! I thought all weekend about our trips to Plattsmouth, when I was growing up, to see you, your mom and your dad. You and I had fun running around Wimpy's, downtown Plattsmouth and your neighborhood. Then we grew up, you got married and we both moved away from Nebraska. You came back to live but I never came back to stay just to visit. You were so much closer to my parents than I was and I was really thankful you and Jimmie were always there for them. I was going through some old pictures last week and found the ones of my parents 50th Anniversary. I could never thank you enough for coming to Vail, Colorado, in August of 1990 to help celebrate my parents 50th Wedding Anniversary. I know they were so happy to see you and Jimmie. I believe we all had a great time. AND in 1995 for their 54th Anniversary you helped me take them to Las Vegas to celebrate. We four had another great time. I will always be thankful that you said "Yes" when I asked if you would go with us. That made their trip much more enjoyable and, actually, you helped me so much because we each had a wheelchair. AND we both learned a valuable lesson: When you go to Vegas go in a wheelchair, even if you don't need it get in it and pretend because you got in the shows and in any line FIRST!!! We laughed so hard about that. You have always had such a big heart and were and are such an incredible being. Thank you for being you and having all those delicious breakfasts, lunches and dinners. I am not sure you ever realized what a special person you are. You are a dynamic being and we shall meet again in the future! Love your Cuz, Linda

“ Jim, I understand what you are going thru... How the "automatic" kicks in to get you through this. My heart goes out to you and your kids. Especially to you. Lynn was always such a presence in our lives. From the moment I met her, she treated me like family. You all were there when I lost Kirk, that meant the world to me to have that support. She was so giving! I will miss her, her notes and Christmas cards. May peace of heart be with you as you travel this new and uninvited journey. Know that I'll be thinking of you often.

“ I was so shocked to read in Cassgram that Lynn had passed. Jim she was a true treasure and you were a couple like no other. I will always remember her smile and friendship and the way she always called me "kid" (along with others I am sure). We last saw you guys at your 50th anniversary and have since moved to South Carolina. If we were still in Nebraska we would definitely be at the service. There is no doubt that heaven has a very beautiful new angel. And Scott and Heather you guys were the loves of her life (along with your dad). I am praying that God will hold you all in his hand and one day bring you peace. Ernie and Pat Morrison.

“ My sympathies to Jim, Scott, Heather and families. Lynn was a life-long friend of my Mom's, despite our 20 years moving around the country, and I know she will be greatly missed. Whenever I was lucky enough to enjoy a visit with Lynn during my trips home to Nebraska, I could always count on a huge hug and many sincere questions about my life. I'm so glad I got to enjoy one more hug from her when I was home for my step-dad's birthday last year. I hope you are able to find peace during this sad time and in the tough days ahead. Her love will always be with you.

“ Lynn was a soul mate to me. When I first came to Plattsmouth in 1959, I didn't know anyone and she welcomed me into her home and family life. This friendship has lasted all through the years. She was such a loving person, sometimes very straight forward in her thoughts, but still very loving. I will miss her, but will cherish the good times we shared. She was a sister I never had. God Bless You All!

“ A great friend and classmate all thru my years at Plattsmouth schools....I will miss her very much every time I return to NE. Jim, my heart goes out to you. I still remember, as if it were yesterday, how cute and in love you two were in high school...you were so meant for each other! And it proved to be for over 50 years! May God be ever so close to you and yours at this time. My prayers, dear friend-

“ I am still reeling from Lynn's passing. I keep waiting to hear her voice on the phone and she greets me with "Bedo"!! Jim, what a wonderful tribute to her memory when the church was overloaded with people who loved her. I cherish not only the years we spent together growing up but the years after we had our families. The most precious to me now are these last few years when you two would spend the weekends with us in Des Moines. No matter what dish I made for dinner she'd always ask, " kid, would you give me your recipe"? We could always act silly together and laugh our heads off especially after a couple glasses of wine! As her health and mine had begun to decline we had some serious talks about life and death. We had a "code word" to be used by whichever one of us passed first just to let the other one know they had reached the other side. I'm still waiting! Jim, I think of you and your family often and pray that you are beginning to find peace by knowing that some day you will be rejoined together for eternity. Love to all of you. Bedo

“ I miss my cousin and think of her often. I moved away from Omaha in 1969 and she and Jimmie were always "there" for my parents. When I would come in to visit we would all get together at our favorite place, Joe Tess's. in Omaha and have dinner. We all got together not to long ago but something was missing!!! LYNN!! I love you and miss you, Linda
