“ Martha was a great person, so kind and thoughtful as well as helpful. First met her in 1960 when my brother and I delivered the Omaha paper to residents of Plattsmouth. She lived a good life and now she can be with her husband and Mary her daughter. May she rest in piece.

“ When reflecting over the years, many memories come to mind. I think of all the good times shared as a child with our McQuin cousins. My Mother's family was a close-knit family. One of the best things her brother, Lowell McQuin, ever did was to marry "Aunt Martha"...the apple of his eye ;) She was a beautiful person - inside and out. I loved her smile, her laugh, her stories. God gave her many wonderful talents which she used to bring joy to her family and others. As the years passed, we cousins grew up and went our separate ways. As all of our parents passed on, Aunt Martha became the last of that generation. She was a wonderful source of information...be it of family history or of past events. What a keen mind she had even up until just recent times. It was always very pleasant to come and visit her when we could, even though we live out of state. We loved her and will greatly miss her. She showed such grace through the loss of so many of her dear family, but we know how much she missed them.

THE PATH OF LIFE

by lola (Rich) Isely

There is a path that each must tread

Along the course of life;

And when the will of God is tried,

THE MASTER WALKS AHEAD.

The road may twist, the trail may cease,

The journey seem too great,

Then just when faith becomes too weak.
THE MASTER WHISPERS PEACE.

The winds may blow, the storm may come -
the road grow rough and long,
Then, just at ebb of even-tide,
THE MASTER GIVES A SONG.

He never doubts, nor turns aside,
Nor leads His own astray,
But rather, from the throne above,
THE MASTER LEADS THE WAY.

The path one treads must be his choice,
The door must open wide;
The MASTER KNOCKS and WAITS TO GUIDE,
The soul that dwells inside.

To all of the family/friends of Martha, we extend our heart-felt condolences on her passing.

In closing, remember that each of our days are numbered.
We each have a choice as to where we will spend eternity. May each of us make Christ (The Master) our guide.
He says in the Gospel of John 11:25,
"I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies: and whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?"
And again, from the Gospel of John 14:6, Jesus answered,
"I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."
With our thoughts and prayers,

“ Goodby to my dear Aunt Martha who lived a very long life filled with loss of family and with decades of happiness and giving. She withstood it all with a kind of pioneering spirit and faith known to her generation. We live far away from you, but we remember the family times where we shared holidays and summer fun. Peace be with you.

“ Marha worked with me when I was Clerk of District Court in the 1970s. Lowell delivered our milk in Mynard when I was young. I worked with Marcia at St. Joseph Hospital. They were a nice family and I enjoyed knowing them. My condolences to the family.
