“ Doug, Ann, and the Meisinger clan, I have such fond memories of Pat's and my college years and how welcome I felt when I'd visit Plattsmouth. She was no nonsense but fun loving and very easy to live with. Whenever we'd see each other through the years we could pick right up where we left off and were soon giggling about something. She's been on my mind the last two days and something compelled me to pick up the phone today - I'm so sorry she's gone. Wanda Bergen Hartley

“ Pat was an awesome educator and a very dear friend. Starting the AFJROTC program in 1995 was a huge challenge and she was always one I could turn to for sound advice and perspective. I was continually impressed with the unique skills she possessed in dealing with students. I admired her great courage and wonderful positive attitude when she returned to PHS after her first round with cancer. She was always positive and upbeat! When she retired I missed her very much and now I consider it a great privilege to remember her as my good friend.
