Barbara “Barb” Ann Cook, age 83, of Plattsmouth, NE passed away on January 23, 2026 at Emerald Nursing and Rehab Legacy Pointe in Omaha, NE.

Barb was born on November 7, 1942 to Floyd Daniel Glasel and Mildred Victoria (Woodward) Glasel in Wausau, WI. She was raised and educated in Wausau and graduated from Wausau High School with the Class of 1962. Following high school, Barb attended Patrick Stevens Finishing School in Milwaukee, WI, where she completed a year of study.

After finishing school, Barb lived with her sister and worked for a heating and cooling company. Her life was one of movement and new beginnings. Barb then relocated to Illinois to be near her sister before eventually settling in Florida, where she made her home for nearly 40 years. She worked as a retail cashier at Selena Pool and Barb could often be found working at the local farmers market in Florida.

In 2012, Barb moved to Plattsmouth where she enjoyed her retirement, being closer to her family and community. She was known for her friendly nature, strong work ethic, and her ability to connect easily with others. Barb will be remembered for her strength, her devotion to her family, and the many chapters of life she embraced with courage and grace.

She is lovingly survived by her daughter: Julie Emmert of Bellevue, NE; her brother: Gary Glasel of Houston, TX; her brother-in-law: Dean Moberg of Maitland, FL; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
