“ I so enjoyed our luncheon visits while Barb was at the Masonic Home. She was always so happy to see our little group of old friends, and always ready to share her wonderful sense of humor with us. It was always so heartening to see how many employees and residents knew Barb by name and kidded around with her. It was very obvious that everyone loved Barb, as all of us did! I loved talking "books," with Barb, as we both shared a love of reading, and of course comparing notes about our children and grandchildren. I loved Barb's sense of adventures and couldn't wait to hear all about the next trip she was going to take, or the one she just got back from, in earlier years. I so admired Barb's involvement in her church, the local library and the many other groups she belonged to. I will miss her greatly.

“ I spent a lot of time around Barb and her kids while growing up. My kids spent lots of time with her and her family also. She was called middle grandma by them. She was a great woman. Always kind and caring. We will always have very fond memories of her.. I'm sure she is in a great place now where there is no illness. God bless her and her family in this time of grief.
