

Beverly "Bev" Ann Harter

January 22, 1943 - March 23, 2021

BEVERLY ANN HARTER

1943 – 2021

Beverly "Bev" Ann (Kitelinger) Harter died under the care of Hospice on Tuesday, March 23rd. Prior to moving to Athens, Ohio, in 2012, she was a longtime resident of Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

Bev was born on January 22, 1943 to Kenneth Hugh and Anna Lucille (Wieland) Kitelinger in Brayton, Iowa. She graduated high school from Wiota Consolidated School with the class of 1961 in Wiota, Iowa. She earned an Associate's degree from Iowa Western, a Bachelor's degree from Peru State University, and a Master's degree from University of Nebraska at Omaha. Prior to retirement, she was a teacher for the Plattsmouth Community Schools for 28 years. Upon retirement, she continued to mentor and tutor students at St. John the Baptist Catholic School.

Bev will be remembered as a talented educator committed to serving others. "Bev had a true passion for learning and teaching and passed that passion on to others, including me growing up," shared Lonny Otto, the Human Resources Director for Pactiv Evergreen in Temple, Texas. "It is that passion that drew me to teaching when I got out of the military and eventually led me to get my Master's degree and follow my true passion in HR. It was an honor to have Bev as part of my life and to have her as a strong mother figure."

Bev generously shared her gifts in diverse community settings including as a charter member of the Plattsmouth Kiwanis Club, member of the Plattsmouth

Public Library Board, founding coordinator of the GED program and adult education in Plattsmouth, and an active member of the Catholic Daughters of America. After moving to Athens, she became a member of Christ the King University Parish and remained involved with the Church of the Holy Spirit in Plattsmouth.

She is survived by her daughter, Dr. Lynn Harter, son-in-law, Dr. Scott Titsworth, granddaughter, Emma Grace Harter, brother Royce Kitelinger and his wife Karen, sister Karen Nollette, and brother-in-law John Harter and his wife Tres. Her family is grateful for the healthcare she received from Dr. Tracy Shaub, Dr. Michael Reed, and Regina Sayrs, N.P., and the staff of Ohio Health Hospice and the Lindley Inn. Marie Ficklin and Nancy Klein remained close friends with Bev after she moved to Athens and were instrumental in keeping her connected to the Plattsmouth community.

Bev is preceded in death by Richard W. Harter, her husband of 39 years. A Rosary will be held at 7:00 P.M., Sunday, August 15, 2021 at Church of the Holy Spirit in Plattsmouth.

A Memorial Mass will be held at 10:30 A.M., Monday, August 16, 2021 at Church of the Holy Spirit with Father Michael Houlihan officiating, Leo Sand as acolyte, and Terry Little as vocalist. The Gift Bearers will Nancy Klein, Jamar Klein, Jemel Klein, and Briana Redman.

The Honorary Pallbearers will be the Catholic Daughters of America.

Her Final Resting Place will be at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery in Plattsmouth.

Memorials to St. John the Baptist School, Plattsmouth Public Library, Passion Works Studio in Athens, Ohio, or donor's choice.

“ So sorry to hear this. She inspired me to get my GED when I was in my 30's . She didn't give up on me & I went on to become a registered nurse many years ago. 💕
