“ My husband and I worked with Brenda and her Mom at Omaha Vaccine everyone we worked with back than was like a work family. I was in shock and very sad when I looked at the newspaper this morning. After I was laid off from work John and I would run into Brenda and Dana at different restaurants and we would catch up on family and always joke about which food place we would see them at next. Brenda was always smiling and happy. We will miss you very much, and to the rest of the family we are very sorry for your loss and you are in our thoughts and prayers. With deepest sympathy John & Donna Swinarski

“ One of the funniest memories I have of Brenda was on a camp out with the group. Brenda would always be the happy, sweet one that was full of smiles and NO DRAMA....except....when you tried to mess with her hair. We all know she always had perfect hair. It was a summer camp out and the group had a squirt gun fight. Well our squirt guns were a little different than most...they were Rambo size Bazooka's!!! It was always a challenge to find one bigger and badder than anyone else. Dave had one that was 10 feet long, weighed 25 lbs and the water squirted 300 feet...no lie. It was a hot humid day and everyone participated but Brenda. She was hanging back on her pretty pink camp chair looking beautiful as always..you know, like a Diva. Well some of us....okay me....thought she should be participating so I recruited an accomplice...Dave....who ran after Brenda with his squirt gun, yelling like a bear out of hibernation. Brenda was terrified since she thought her model hair might get messed up. No one has ever seen her hair messed up...EVER! She jumped about 10 feet straight up in the air then went tearing down the road screaming. She was going to do anything to get away so her hair wouldn't get wet. Dave Squirted her several times from the back but believe it or not, her hair wasn't touched. In fact her hair didn't even blow in the wind when she was running...weird. Could it have been that whole can of hairspray that saved her...hummm.

We all love you Brenda and didn't care how much hairspray you used, you were always so beautiful...inside and out. Will miss you terribly my friend.
