“ The Wilson Family would like to extend our deepest condolences to your family. I can never begin to imagine what you are going through. I can tell you that Chris was an absolute pleasure to be around and we are so blessed to have gotten to know him for the years we were here in Plattsmouth. Your family is in our thoughts every single day and I pray that you are comforted by the wonderful memories of Christopher. I have a few pictures of the kids over the years if you ever want them. Please know you have the support of so many people if you need absolutely anything.
With Sympathy,
Cassandra, Jason, & Sway Wilson
