“ I was so saddened to hear about Chris. Such a sweet person. My prayers go out to you and your family. I babysat for Chris and his sister Rachel as a teenager and enjoyed getting to be a part of their family. Butch and Rachel, may God comfort you in your time of sorrow and I'm sure Ms. Betty was waiting with open arms for him. HUGS!! Deb Meier Colgrove

“ Chris I only got to know you for a short time. You blew my mind many many times with your kindness and what you did for me. But what a outstanding gentleman, Husband & friend the way you looked after Nancy. The way you took care of her and support her. Lots of men can learn from you. You will be missed far beyond belief from family, friends far and near and especially by your wife.

My heart bleeds with pain and sorrow for all the people that are suffering from your next step in life. Although I don't understand why God takes a person home when he does, but he has bigger plans for you. We never got to ride together but we will when I catch up with you and all my other brothers.

“ Nancy, We extend to you our sympathy and prayers on this abrupt death of Chris. Your life together was short but it sounds like it was packed with wonderful times with friends and family. May the memories sustain you as you deal with this tragic loss and the grief. Our prayers for you.

Cousin Butch, Our prayers and love to you on this tragic loss of your only son, Chris. He is with his dear mom Betty now but gone way too young. My heart aches for you. Sympathy and love also to Rachel and family. Sorry we will not be with you all for the services.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time. When I think of Chris I think of a very kind, considerate, caring person and the best pool player I personally have ever known in my life. He is with God now, way to soon. Chris will be missed by so many people. Rest In Peace my friend.
