“ Everything about Cindy was a positive. Our regular visits at the salon, to our fabulous trip to Vegas with just the 3 of us girls, and what a trip that was, to the girls nights at my house. The memories will be cherished. God Bless Cindy

“ I first met Cindy when John, my late husband, bowled at the old LiMiRick Lanes. She was always friendly and a lot of fun when we bowled against them. After I started working at school, I met her again. I wished I would have known her better. Brad, so sorry for your loss. Sharon McColligan

“ With pen in hand we find it hard to express feeling of soft hearted tears for you, Brad Sitzman & your children. We wish you to feel the comfort of friends and family. Most of all the comfort of knowing your wife, Cindy Sitzman has been restored to the woman of her youth. She is now with those who waited beyond the veil for her. We pray that our words of comfort will help you through this difficult time. Sincerely, Your Neighbors -Kim, Jim and Chris Heier
