“ So many memories, growing up with you, Fud. Playing catch with the football in the front yard (running you into the clothesline), racing to see who could call the other back with those rotary dial phones, hanging out crunching cabbage cores in the back of Rubacks. Back when times were simple. Im glad you are healed and happy now. Hi to Ricky. See you again someday.

“ Danny's dad, Don, and my dad, Chuck, were brothers but also best of friends. Our families spent a lot of fun times together, up the road at their acreage or around their big dining room table in town. I'm pleased that Danny carried on the meat skills of our Grandpa Feder and my dad. My dear cousin, Danny, the world will miss your smile.

“ Oh Dan or as we called him Fud. So many memories I remember you was with me when I shot my 1st deer so many years ago. It was a Monday morning Randy was working so I went with you before I had to work. You laughed so hard when I asked why didn't it run (it dropped where I shot it) his response was well you shot it in the right spot. He taught us so much and was always a ton of fun to be around even though we said he was our meanest friend. Fud you will be missed we live you till we see you again.
