“ Not a day goes by that i dont miss the father you became to me. You were my biggest supporter all those years through the good times and the bad and am so thankful Deb and you helped me become the new me.

I am grateful I was able to be there for you, be able to provide for you and see you until stupid Covid 19. Saying our goodbyes while you were alive was so hard but showed me how much you realy did care about me. I will miss you allways and no one will ever replace the best father i had that you became to me.

My prayers go out to the family for your loss of such a great person you were blessed with all your lives. I wish you all happiness, peace, best wishes and love for your future to come.

God Bless

“ Glenn West (Older brother)
Brothers fight when they are young and as they grow older this does not change. George was my youngest brother. I love him with all my heart and will miss him with all my heart. Someday we will be together again and we will laugh at all the small things we fought about. He is at peace now and in no pain. Love you, George

“ Deb - I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your beloved George. Tim and I are praying for him and for your family. Hold onto your memories and feel blessed that you lived a life with your sole-mate. <3 Lots of people do not get that opportunity. May God give George rest and your family peace that he is not in pain any longer. God Bless you all during this difficult time.

“ Shanda Wallace (Sister) George was my older brother. He always watched out for me as we grew up. If someone was picking on me he would say "Hey that's my little sister. He had a heart of gold. George loved his family and would help anyone in anyway he could. He is now pain free and I am sure telling stories to Mom & Dad as they walk together. I love my brother and know I will be with him again.

“ How I remember my Uncle George, is when I was a little girl and he looked like Jesus, when he was younger. He would laugh when I told him that. We didn't travel much after getting older so we missed out keeping in touch with a lot of family members, but in the end we are always family. R.I.P Angel, and with no more pain. You are now with Grandpa George, Grandma Dolly, Uncle Duke, and Uncle Mike.

“ George was my younger brother.yes he could be a pain when we were younger kids, but we all forgot that as we got older. Now I think of stuff we did as kids and miss all of our family. Life got in the way I guess. It was so hard to see George hurting and not being able to help. I know he is in no pain and with others with God. Peace Little Brother. Ray

“ George was my youngest brother. He was a very normal little brother. Always bothering the older siblings and I remember him always telling our mom " I didn't do it". No matter what "it" was. George was a good husband, father and grandfather. Family was important to him. Debbie was the love of his life. George will be missed by all of us. I know he is in a place with no more pain and I can just imagine how wonderful the sounds are in heaven for him to hear. See you one day my little brother.
