“ One of the Valley View moms of the '60s. Her daughter gave me out the first cat from Cynthia kitty's collection - we named him BOOTS. Her father was a prominent businessman with his barbershop in Plattsmouth. Her children were my ages and we all attended PHS School in the '60s. She supervised the Valley Street children in the Valley View edition in the '60s beside working for the local telephone company.

“ My sincere condolence to the family of Helen Mae Osterholm. I was a patient of Dr. Osterholm's. He was the best, kindest and most caring Doctor I have ever had. I am sure that had a lot to do with how he was raised. She must have been a very kind and caring and loving person. It's very hard to lose a Mother. They can never be replaced. I am so very sorry for your loss.
