“ I met Jim for the first time this past August at our Cronin family reunion at Platte River State Park. I am Mike Cronin's daughter, who is first cousin to Jim. It was great to meet him and hear him tell stories of knowing my dad when they grew up. I'm so sorry for your loss. Prayers to you all.

So so sad to see this obituary. I met Jim in 1980 at a funeral of my uncle Leslie Fitzgerald. What a great guy and so sad to read this. We became very very close .Glad to see the patch gone and what a big and I beautiful family he had. He found his dream and he will remain in my heart. Forever. You got your wings buddy fly high and soar like an eagle. And one day I will see u again. . Love u forever JimBob .tell my auntie h ello. God speed until we meet lagain. Your family is in my prayers and so are u !!!!! Xo

“ Jim was my trainer about a year ago and as people who know him know, he was a tough nut to crack. I think I annoyed him because I told him it was my goal to get a laugh out of him by the time my 2 weeks was up. He just bit down harder, determined not to let me get that little win. Every day, I'd try every joke I could think of and had looked up online the previous night in the room and he remained as still as a statue, no facial expressions, nothing. I couldn't even get a grin out of him. I did manage to prevail before my training was up, I can't remember the joke. But I do remember him laughing then looked at me and said alright, fine. You did it. Happy? Now can you stop talking?

Over this last year, I got to know him better and every time I was sent back to the yard I hoped I'd run in to Jim. Often I did and we'd catch up. Jim always answered his phone to help with any question I had and taught me much. I was very sad to hear that Jim passed and will miss looking for him whenever I pull into Plattsmouth.
