“ Our condolences to all the family for this loss. Although I only knew Joanne through email and Facebook we had a family bond in our interest in genealogy research and our common ancestry. I wish we had had the chance to meet personally. She was a blessing to me just to know her. Rest in peace cousin, maybe we will meet in a better place.

“ Maurie, Julie, Mark, and all of the family, Please accept our deepest sympathy for your loss of Joanne. We know she was a major part of your lives, and she will be missed by each of you. Joanne led an active and productive life, most of which was dedicated to you, her loved ones. We should all try to celebrate her life and not mourn her death. We hope that God will bless you and allow you to retain her memory forever. Again, our condolences, and please let us know if we can ever be of help in any way. You are all still considered family, and we trust you will always think of us as the same.
