“ I was a classmate and attended church with Juanita when she lived north of Barksdale. I lost contact with her when they moved - vaguely remember them moving to Bandera. Her blond pigtails and very blue eyes made her stand out in a crowd - she always said that she was a "blue baby" at birth. Have often wondered what happened to her - so sorry that we never made contact with each other. Sorry for your loss.....Lucille Carson Hutcherson
