LEONARD JOHN HILD

1941 – 2023

Leonard John Hild age 81 of Louisville, NE peacefully passed away on Tuesday, November 14, 2023 at the Parsons House on Eagle Run in Omaha, NE.

He was born on November 18, 1941, to John L. Hild and Elsie M. (Dehning) Hild in Omaha, NE. He grew up on the family farm where his daughter now resides. Leonard first attended country school and later graduated from Plattsmouth High School with the class of 1959. Leonard as a youth was extremely active in 4-H from showing cattle, sheep, and hogs to being the club leader. He won numerous awards with his animals at the county and state fairs. At the age of 18, Leonard attended the National 4-H conference in Washington, DC, where he received an award from President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

After high school he went on to attend the University of Nebraska-Lincoln for a year studying agriculture and was a member of the AGR fraternity. He later joined the Air National Guard and would eventually marry the love of his life Judith “Judy” Ann Olsen on November 26, 1961. During their almost 62 years of marriage, he would always say the best “mistake” of his life was knocking on the wrong apartment door where Judy lived. Together they spent life on the farm where they raised their two kids Steven Hild and Marcia (Hild) Sutton along with numerous livestock and crops.

Throughout his life Leonard enjoyed many hobbies including slow pitch softball, attending/watching countless Husker sporting events, and bowling where he later won a bronze medal at the National Senior bowling tournament in Reno, NV. He enjoyed watching his grandsons participate in all their sporting events and activities. They meant the world to him. He loved being outside and vacationing with his family, especially to Lake Tahoe, CA, where he hiked numerous times. There was never a road trip spent without Leonard insisting Neil Diamond be played on the radio.

Leonard was a lifelong member of Christ Lutheran Church in Louisville, NE, where he was baptized and confirmed. He was also a member of Blue Lodge #6 in Plattsmouth, NE.

He is survived by his wife: Judy Hild of Louisville, NE; his daughter: Marcia (Hild) Sutton and her husband Kent of Plattsmouth, NE; two grandchildren: Derek Sutton and his wife Jillanna and Dylan Sutton and his wife Jordan; three great grandchildren: Leo, Lucy, and Stanley; his sister: Shirley Burton and her husband Doug of Hickory, NC; sister-in-law: Maxine Hild of Plattsmouth, NE; brother-in-law: James Pollard of Murrieta, CA; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and many friends.

He is preceded in death by his parents: John and Elsie Hild, son: Steven John Hild, brother-in-law: Tom Meisinger, his brother: Ralph Hild, and two sisters: Dorothy Meisinger and Deloris Pollard.

“ My sincere sympathy to you Judy & your family. Some of my best memories of him are the years we bowled together. Also, our days of playing slow-pitch softball. During the fall each year he always stopped by to get Red Delicious Apples to eat.

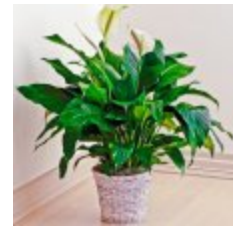

Leonard was a great friend & neighbor to my family. He always had a smile on his face & was a lot of fun to be around. He will be missed by all of us!

“ Judy and family. So, sorry to hear of Leonard's passing. He was quite the guy. Always enjoyed hearing him share his journey. Especially his history with showing cattle. Thoughts and prayers for all of you.
