“ Sorry for your loss!

Kevin Kuhl - June 12, 2018 at 11:31 AM

“ My deepest sympathy to the family of Marilyn March. For the few times I was privileged to spend time with Mrs. March I could see that she was a silent "Rock" to her family. Guided by her strong, personal relationship with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and by her love of The Church, she fostered a loving, safe haven for all her children, their spouses and their families. Always welcoming, always warm, always peaceful and gentle. Now in the arms of Jesus and Mary, Mrs. March will be able to wrap her arms around her children, once again, and live pain-free, dancing, smiling, laughing and wearing the crown of gold and jewels, which she earned through her life of love and service for all. She will be missed.
