“ In the mid 60s, I was teaching sixth grade at Central in Plattsmouth. Sandy Payton was one of my students - a sweet, polite girl. At the first parent-teacher conference Marge came with that "I've got a secret" smile. After visiting she told me that we were related. Her mother and my father were double first cousins! They were cousins on both my grandfather and grandmother's side. I did meet her mother several times much later when she would visit Marge's family in Plattsmouth. So, I guess Marge and I were double third cousins. I really enjoyed hearing about the McArdle/Andresen relatives that I had never met.
