“ My sweet Max, I loved and adored you so very much. You made everyday a sunny day whenever I got to speak with you. You brought so many happy memories to our conversations. You were my ink to all of the past joyful and happy times. The Portis/DeFreece clan has thinned but what time cannot not do is erase all the memories of family get togethers and those who brought happiness through the doors of a tiny little house in Walla Walla WA. We all anxiously awaited your and Billy's arrival. I know heaven became a musical fest of fiddles and banjos upon your entry through the golden doors. I shall miss our great talks, your laughter and that snap in your eyes that I could see all the way from Nebraska to Washington State. I shall miss you more than i can say. God Bless you Maxie, I love you. See you on the other side one day.
