“ I remember Patricia as a beautiful ray of light, or “Princess of real”. back at the hospital she would give you a story on how things look at how things are, oppose to us military people are taught to what where told whatever you see is not really happening., but patricia would say I'm not military I'm civilian here's what you're doing, and Mary and Daisy would all would take turns given us reality. she was always good to work with, always fun, always bright and cheery. always will remember her and I have no idea if her family knows how much she was cared for at the hospital. Please accept our deep condolences for your lost.

Mom, it's hard to believe you're gone. It makes me smile thinking about going out to eat with you. You always saved room for dessert, especially pie at Village Inn. Last time I saw you, I held your hand and told you "I love you!", and you squeezed my hand back to acknowledge my words. Larry and I will miss you greatly! Love, Gloria
