“ I lived right next door to him, I always talked to him when i could, and i always thought about him when I would drive by his house. I remember one day he had asked us to buy him a pizza, and he was so thankful to us. I would do anything to buy him one more pizza if i could. He was a sweet man, and always made me smile when he'd talk to me. May he rest easy, and live on forevermore. 🌹🕊️

“ My Family sends their condolences and deepest sympathies to your family. We only meet Ray in the last 4 years but he will always be remembered and he holds a place in my heart and prayers. May his soul rest easy and his health be restored into beautiful angel wings to wrap around you and his children with love & strength during this time and throughout out their lives as their guardians.
Deepest sympathies,
