“ My mom, Carol, was Ryan's (and Duane's) daycare provider when Ryan was a baby/toddler. Rod was the one who dropped Ryan off at our house in the mornings. He was always cheerful and nice, and it was obvious he loved Ryan. My condolences to Ryan and the rest of Rod's family.

“ I haven't seen Rod since the 70's when we road around in his corvette but I have many fond memories of him. He had a great sense of humor that kept me laughing.

RODNEY was always a friendly and kind person. I went to school with him and enjoyed his friendship.

I am so sad to hear about Rodney's passing. He was my first cousin, but I hadn't seen him in a couple of years. My father and Rod's mother were brother and sister. If I had know, I certainly would have attended his service on Tuesday. Please accept my sincere sympathy. Mary Jo Hirz Osterholm
