“ Roy was my boss at Northwest Microfilm. He hired me over the phone in October of 1973. I called in response to and add if the Omaha World Herald for a computer technician. At that time no one knew what that was, but I had just been discharged from the USAF at Offutt AFB. He answered the call and asked me what my background was, when I told him that I had been if Crypto Maintenance for 4 years - he said - hired, start tomorrow. Then he asked me if I could come in that day to help - no pay, ( that was Roy), I said sure. This was the beginning of my career in the computer world, He promoted me to operations manager and eventually to branch manager in Kansas City MO. I appreciate him for giving me a chance. He was a tough but fair guy.
