“ When I think of Ruth, I have to smile. She touched my heart in the way she truly loved her family in word and deed. The amazing thing is; SHE MADE THEM FEEL LOVED. As one of her Bible students, I felt just as loved.

She always had a different way of looking at things that made us all laugh out loud. But, her love for our creator, Jehovah God is what made her smile. Through all of the hardships in life, she put her faith in the promised New Earth and the resurrection hope. She believed our Lord Jesus' words at John 5:28,29; "...they will hear my voice and come out...(of the memorial tombs)." All of us can't wait to welcome our dear, sweet Ruth back!
