“ I have known Sheila for a long time. Ever since I moved to plattsmouth in 1961 as my parents were friends of theirs. Sheila and Jay were always kind considerate and very friendly, they knew no strangers. Sheila will be missed. I also worked with her when she was Grand Guardian of Nebraska Jobs Daughters. She was always a joy to be around. May Sheila rest in peace she suffered long enough. God Bless her family, Jay and Bennie.
