“ Dear Family, I met your loved one at the food court located on Vandenberg AFB in 1997. I was visiting a friend on base and I was going to be shipped out to Air Force Basic Training in just a few days- I was terrified. Gini and I started a conversation. She told me, "No Regrets, No Fear, Live Life"! I wrote down those words and her address. I don't think I ever wrote her, but I wanted to a million times. And, I had been thinking about her lately and pulled out the address to write a note. I thought-let me just google her first and I saw that she had passed away. She said no regrets...but I regret not writing her and telling her that those words meant SO much to me during basic training and still in life today. What a wonderful woman with such a zest for life! I'm glad I had the opportunity to meet her. I'm SO sorry for your loss. Respectfully, Felicia Grillo, MSGT, USAF
